

Michael W. Cieslinski

---

Residency

East Carolina University Emergency Medicine Residency
Vidant Medical Center, Brody School of Medicine

- Academic, High Acuity
- Level 1 Trauma Center; Stroke, PCI, Poison center
- 58 bed + 7 psychiatric bed, 120,000+ annual volume
- Training in Ultrasound, Toxicology, EMS, Trauma, ICU, Pediatrics
- Personal average 2.5-3 patient per hour
- EHR: EPIC

2014-2017
Greenville, NC

Education

Doctor of Medicine

Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) School of Medicine

May 2014
Richmond, VA

Bachelor of Science, Economics, cum laude

Virginia Commonwealth University

May 2008
Richmond, VA

Work Experience

Southside Regional Medical Center – ApolloMD

Independent Contractor - Emergency Medicine Physician

- 32 bed, 60,000 patient per year census
- Level III Trauma Center, primary PCI center, Teleneuro
- EHR: Cerner
- Personal average to date: 1.9 patient per hour

July 2017-Present
Petersburg, VA

Southern Virginia Regional Medical Center - ApolloMD

Independent Contractor - Emergency Medicine Physician

- 10 bed, 12,000 patient per year census
- Single Coverage
- EHR: MedHost

May 2017- Present
Emporia, VA

Southampton Memorial Hospital - ApolloMD

Independent Contractor - Emergency Medicine Physician

- 13 bed, 14,000 patient per year census
- Single Coverage
- EHR: MedHost

April 2017- Present
Franklin, VA

Certifications

ACLS*, ATLS, BLS*, NRP*, PALS *Expired or near expiration, in process of recertifying

Professional Organizations

Emergency Medicine Resident's Association (member since 2011)

American College of Emergency Physicians (member since 2011)

Society for Academic Emergency Medicine (member since 2014)

Community/Academic Involvement

North Carolina College of Emergency Physicians voting Board member (2016-2017)

Program (EM Residency) Evaluation Committee (2015-2017)

Current study project: Prevalence of DVT in the nursing home population